

Exporail, the Canadian Railway Museum

Customer Service and Education

Tour guide position

Founded by the Canadian Railroad Historical Association, Exporail provides its visitors with a unique opportunity to discover the most important collection of railway vehicles in the country. Exporail invites the public to discover the fascinating universe of trains, its impact on the development of Canada, and allows visitors to live an unforgettable railway experience.

Located in Saint-Constant, on the south shore of Montreal and accessible by public transit from Montreal, Exporail offers a varied program of activities and is looking for Tour Guides who are passionate about history and technology. Tour guides perform a variety of tasks such as giving guided tours, leading experimental activities, and offering rides on a miniature railway. They also help welcome visitors, collect admission fees, and sell souvenirs in the museum shop, all in a safe work environment.

Position

The position is full-time or part-time, depending on your availabilities, (21 to 35 hours/week during the Summer and 7 to 21 hours/week during the Fall, Winter, and Spring). If available weekdays, Tour Guides can give guided tours from September to May.
